Cross Chalk Line
on the Porch.Jonas Troyer Scared
Hawkins Folks.

"Cross that line and I won't be responsible for what I do," said Perry Hardy of Hawkins, and he marked a chalk line on his porch. The man he addressed had been making ugly threats. The fellow went away at last, but made so much trouble elsewhere that Constable Howe brought him to the county jail.

He said his name was Jonas Troyer and his home in East Akron. He will have a hearing on a lunacy charge. He is 40 years old, over-religious, and wandered down to Hawkins Friday.

Picnics on a single track railroad mean dispatchers' troubles and the dispatcher for the C. T. & V. has had his full share of busy days this season. Besides the enormous rush of regular business ever since the B. & O. acquired the road, there have been great numbers of special trains.

HARD TO PLEASE.

Regarding the Morning Cup.

"Oh how hard it was to part with coffee, but the continued trouble with constipation and belching was such that I finally brought myself to leave it off.

Then the question was, what should we use for the morning drink? Tea was worse for us than coffee; chocolate and cocoa we soon tired of; milk was not liked very well, and hot water we could not endure.

About two years ago we struck upon Postum Food Coffee, and have never been without it since. We have seven children. Our baby now eighteen months old would not take milk, so we tried Postum and found she liked it and it agreed with her perfectly. She is today, and has been, one of the healthiest babies in the State. I use about two-thirds Postum and one-third milk and a teaspoon of sugar, and put it into her bottle. If you could have seen her eyes sparkle and hear her say "good" today when I gave it to her, you would believe me that she likes it.

If I was mother of an infant's home, every child would be raised on Postum. Many of my friends say, "You are looking so well!" I reply, "I am well; I drink Postum Food Coffee. I have no more trouble with constipation, and know that I owe my good health to God and Postum Food Coffee."

I am writing this letter because I want to tell you how much good Postum has done us, but if you knew how I shrink from publicity, you would not publish this letter, at least not over my name." Milford, O.
